

CLPS's Reading Newsletter

Last half term, some of our Key Stage 2 pupils worked together to create this newsletter. At CLPS we appreciate how important reading is, not just to improve our education but to shut off from the outside world. We have all thoroughly enjoyed the experience and would love to do it again. Hopefully you enjoy our newsletter!

What we love to read!

We asked some pupils about their favourite books, Sukaina mentioned that Matilda was her favourite but she loves any type that involved drama. Ayaan has read the entire Diary of a Wimpy Kid series! He was kept entertained by all of the jokes and when he was reading, he always had a smile of his face. Lots of us really enjoy adventure books because they take us to another world and allow us to use our imagination. Palvasha's favourite book is 'A Monster Calls! It isn't as scary as you might think, give it a read!

The Interviews

During the third week of our club, we went around school to interview staff to find out about their favourite books. Mrs Mayoh loves Noughts and Crosses, by Malorie Blackman and Silver Sword, by Ian Serraillier. She couldn't pick a favourite! Mrs Williams absolutely adores adventure books; her favourite books when she was younger were The Lord of the Rings and Milly Molly Mandy. Out of all the books that she has ever read, Stickman by Julia Donaldson is her all time fav! Mrs Malik believes that all children should read The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe! Miss Fairclough loves to read the Harry Potter books. We think that lots of children love them too! We can learn so much from different text types which has such a huge impact on our education. Why don't you see if you can read all of the books mentioned before you leave primary school?

Miss Cloherty Recommends

I am currently reading, 'The Twisted Threads of Polly Freeman' by Pippa Goodhart. A number of years ago, I enjoyed her book 'Fire Cat' - a short piece of historical fiction set during the Great Fire of London. This story, however, is set in 1838, in a mill not very far away from where we live. Polly is child who works at Quarry Bank Mill. Unfortunately for her, the work at the cotton mill is dangerous, the hours are long and she desperately misses her Great Aunt. Will she manage to escape from the mill and will she be reunited with Aunt Jemima? I do hope so! I'd better read on to find out...
